

Lucas has not contributed to the group.
However, when the teacher comes into the room
he pretends that he came up with all the ideas.
What would you do?

Jim keeps falling asleep during the meetings. He has done very little work and is relying heavily on others. What would you do?

All Sarah-Louise does is play on her phone during meetings. Sarah-Louise is a popular student, but isn't helping with the project. How are you going to stop her?

Angela has terrible breath and body odour. No-one wants to work with her. How could you tell her to be more attentive to her personal hygiene?

Mika is not strong in English and it seems like he's not following a lot of the information in meetings. What are you going to do?

John just broke the laptop and put it back on the library shelf without saying anything. You feel uncomfortable about this. What are you going to do?

Peta, one of your group members, who is not the leader is being extremely bossy. This bothers everybody, but no-one wants to have an argument. What are you going to do?

Max, one of your group members is extremely lazy and is not doing anything. What are you going to do?